Arms:—Or, three crescents, the founder of the family in America, was of English an cestry; he came to New England in the early part of the seventeenth century, probably at the time of the emigration of th e Rev. Peter Bulkeley, who was rector and came to America in 1635. Mr. Odell is first trace d at Concord, Mass., where his name appears in the town records as early as 1639; he removed to Fairfield, Conn., about 1644 and became the owner of a larg records with the comparatively rare prefix of Mr., whic h, in those early days, was a distinctive and honorable title. Mr. Odell died at Fairfield in 1676; his will, recorded there an d dated 6 June, the same year, mentio Moorehouse, daughter-in-law Mary Odell, and others, b equeathes lands in Concord and Fairfield, and makes son John Odell and son-in-law Samuel Moorehouse executors. Res earches are now being made in England

Mr. Odell's ancestry; the parish registers of Bedfordshi re show a very extensive settlement of the family in that county, and the name appears to have undergone many variation s of spelling, such as Wodell, Woddell, seat of the family in Bedfordshire was originally the anc ient castle and barony of Wahull, also called Wodhull, Woodhull, Woodhill, etc.; this place is now described as Odell on th e maps of the county, this being a later o Northamptonshire, and Mollington, Oxfordshire, the co mmon spelling of the name is Wodhull and Woodhull; in Mollington Church, however, is a tomb to the memory of Mrs. E lizabeth (Meese) Woodhull, late wife o Esq.; she died 6 March, 1656; on the tomb are the ar ms of Woodhull, or, three crescents, gules. In America, the families of Woodhull and Odell have not traced any relationsh ip, though Richard Wodhull, Gent., bo in this country, and to whom his kinsman Lord Crewe s ent the Wodhull Achievement about 1687, is frequently described in the public records as Richard Odell, and William O dell, Jr., of Rye, N. Y., signed as Will ration of th… e Rev. Peter Bulkeley, who was rector of the Parish of Odell in Bedfordshire, England, onn., about 1644 and became the owner of a large estate; his name appears there in the probate ed there an d dated 6 June, the same year, mentions his sons William and John, daughter Rebecca tors. Res arches are now being made in England with the hope of obtaining further evidence of y variation of spelling, such as Wodell, Woddell, Woodell, Woddle, Odill, Odell, and Odle. The Odell on th e maps of the county, this being a later orthography. In the parish registers of Thenford, y of Mrs. E lizabeth (Meese) Woodhull, late wife of Richard Woodhull, alias Odell, of Mollington, relationsh ip, though Richard Wodhull, Gent., born about 1620, the progenitor of the Woodhulls William O dell, Jr., of Rye, N. Y., signed as William Woodhull in 1668. Gen. and Bio. Record, Vol. I, p. 25.)

* It is not known that William Odell, Jr., was the eldest son. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary describes him as William Odell of Greenwich, Conn., aged 47 in 1681. Nothing has been found, however, to fix the date of birth of his brother John Odell.

MR. WILLIAM ODELL,=——. The name of Mr. Odell's wife is not known; she was probably married in England and it is conjectured by Mr. Baird that her son, William, was born there about 1634. There is no trace of Mrs. Odell's residence in Concord, the first book of the records of that town having been lost. In the early records of Boston, however, may be found: "A Register of the births and burials in Concord from the yeare 1639, untill the first month 1644, according to O' account." In this Register are the following entries: "James the sonne of William Odlle was borne the 2' of the 11' month 1639, and was buried 4° (2') 164[illegible]." "Rebecca, the daughter of William Odle, was borne the 17' (5") 1642." It is supposed that Mrs. Odell died before 1644, the year of her husband's removal to Fairfield, Conn., as the records of that town make no mention of her name, nor does Mr. Odell's will, made in 1676, refer to her.

MR. WILLIAM ODELL, ——. The name of Mr. Odell 's wife is not known: she was probably married in England and it is conjectured by Mr. Baird that her son, William, of Odell in Bedfordshire, England, was born there about 1634. The re is no trace of Mrs. Odell's residence in Concord, the first book of the records of that town having been lost. In name appears there in the probate the early records of Boston, how ver, may be found: "A Register of the births and burialls in Concord from the yeare 1639, untill the first month lliam and John, daughter Rebecca 1644, according to O' account." In this Register are the following entries: "James the sonne of William Odle was borne the 2° of the 11° month e of obtaining further evidence of 1639, and was buried 4° (2°) 164 t." "Rebecca, the daughter of William Odle, was borne the 17° (5°) 1642." It is supposed that Mrs. Odell died dle, Odill, Odell, and Odle. The before 1644, the year of her husbe nd's removal to Fairfield, Conn., as the records of that town make no mention of her name, nor does Mr. Odell's In the parish registers of Thenford, will, made in 1676, refer to her.
